

Job Opportunity
Superintendent of Schools
Burrillville Public Schools, Rhode Island

The School Committee of Burrillville Public Schools invites highly qualified candidates to apply for the position of Superintendent of Schools.

The Town of Burrillville is located in northwestern Rhode Island. It borders Connecticut and Massachusetts and is 20 miles from Providence.

The Vision of the Burrillville School District embraces the philosophy of shared leadership as a means of building and sustaining a culture that ensures high and equitable outcomes for all learners.

The Burrillville School District serves approximately 2,300 students, Grades PK – 12 in five schools:

- Burrillville High School (9 – 12)
- Burrillville Middle School (6 – 8)
- Steere Farm Elementary School (2 – 5)
- William L. Callahan School (2 – 5)
- Austin T. Levy School Elementary (PK – 1)

The District's FY 18 budget is $32,500,000.

A license as a Superintendent of Schools in Rhode Island is required. An earned doctorate is preferred, but not mandatory. The position will offer a regionally competitive salary and benefits package. It is anticipated that an initial three-year contract will be offered.

Submit resume:
Anne Schmiedel
Burrillville Superintendent Search
2300 Bronco Highway
Harrisville, RI 02830
Phone: 401-568-1301; Email: schmiedela@bsd-ri.net

Closing date: January 31, 2018

The intent of the School Committee is to name a Superintendent in May, 2018, effective starting date July 2, 2018.